

Keeley Dority 501-410-3530 KB The 6.9 inches of snow Columbia has had this month would seem like a dream come true for the East Coast this weekend. But there have been days when Columbia has gotten its fair share of winter weather. Here are some of Columbia's record-breaking snowfalls according to the National Weather Service.

- Most snowfall in a month: 24.5 inches in March 1960
- Most snowfall in a year: 49.4 inches throughout 1960
- The snowiest season: December 2010 to February 2011 had 45.6 inches
- Daily record snowfall amounts:
 - Jan. 19, 1995 - 18.0 inches
 - Feb. 1, 2011 - 17.5 inches
 - Dec. 1, 2006 - 13.0 inches
 - March 7, 1931 - 10.1 inches Feb. 16, 1945 - 12.0 inches +
 - Nov. 26, 1975 -- 7.6 inches Feb. 19, 1938 - 11.8 inches +
 - + Feb. 23, 1975 - 11.8 inches +